Accessibility Training

Why train with us?

- Professional Development: Employees will come away from training with a new understanding of learning disabilities and autism and accessibility in the workplace, they will be able to apply their knowledge to make your company more inclusive.
- Impact: Your company will be able to confidently promote inclusion and support individuals with additional needs, having a direct impact on their community.
- Recognition: We proudly acknowledge and celebrate our partners and supporters through social media, press releases, and more.
- Tailored learning: We can adapt our training content to ensure it meets your specific workplace goals and challenges.

What Local Businesses Are Saying:

“The team have delivered some fantastic training for our staff and volunteers that has given us the confidence to support volunteers with learning disabilities and autism. In turn, we've been able to offer volunteering opportunities to Yellow Submarine members who have helped us with various jobs around the site. We have been so impressed with the organisation and the young people and adults they are supporting.” Volunteer Manager, Cogges Farm
